

The Daily Gazetteer:

NUMB. 1508

SATURDAY, APRIL 19. 1740.

No. 1506.

Yesterday arrived the Mails due from Holland, and France.

Cadiz, March 29.

THE Ships of Force fitted out here, consisting of 8 Men of War of from 60 to 70 Guns, 2 Frigates of 40 and 50 Guns, and 2 Packet-Boats of 16 Guns each, being furnish'd with the necessary Ammunition and Provision, are now under Sail, but whether bound is uncertain, for some say they are going to Majorca, and others to the West-Indies; and the Report, that the King of France is to send a Squadron to this Port, is altogether as dubious.

The last Letters from Gibraltar which are of the 22d say, that there remain but 13 Men of War since Admiral Haddock sail'd towards Portsmouth. They add, that they have had Letters from Tetuan with Advice that the Civil Wars which have rag'd in Barbary between the Competitors for the Crown of Morocco ever since the Death of Muley Ismael, which is 13 Years, are at length ended; and that Muley Abdallah has been unanimously proclaim'd King of Morocco and Fez, not only by the Inhabitants but by the Army of the Black: That the chief Bashas of the Country have been at Mequinez to recognize him, and at the same time made him great Presents: That all his Subjects are the better pleas'd because they hope this new King who is the Son of Muley Ismael will equal him in his Abilities for the good Government of his People, and maintaining them in Tranquility: That he discover'd a vast Regard for the Europeans; That he was remarkably desirous to see Trade flourish in his Dominions, of which he gave an undoubted Proof, when passing with his Army before St. Croix, the Inhabitants whereof did not pay him the Honours that were due to him, he discover'd no Resentment for that Trade should suffer by it: That the Kings Muley Mustardi and Muley Ariba, two more Brothers, and two Santons, who had disputed the Crown for some time, were entirely quell'd and gone no body knew whither, being no longer able to support their Pretensions: And that the Bascha of Tetuan, one of the most powerful Bashas of the Kingdom, and who had always favour'd the second Brother, Muley Mustardi, being very much confounded what to do, because he had all the Reason in the World before to dread this Prince's Resentment, has given him fresh Cause of Discontent by causing Reuben Ben Quilli a Jew to be strangled, who being Muley Abdallah's favourite, the Bascha was afraid lest he should discover some things of Importance to him, and put him in a Way to make himself Master of Tetuan.

Madrid, April 6. N. S. A List handed about here of the Forces transported from Barcelona to Majorca, makes their Number near 12000 Men, with 80 Cannon, most of them Battering Pieces, besides Mortars, and a great Quantity of Ammunition. The Court has receiv'd an Express from Cadiz, with Advice that the Squadron which was in the said Bay, sail'd the 10th ult. at Night, as 'tis said, for the West-Indies; and we hear also, that the Squadron in the Port of Ferrol has steer'd the same Course. We are assur'd, that the new Treaty of Commerce betwixt this Court and France will be concluded in two Months. The Admiralty-Office has lately deliver'd out above 60 new Commissions to Ships, to cruise upon the English Ships, of which some or other are brought every Week into the Harbours of this Kingdom. Forasmuch as Advice is come from Barcelona, that 10 or 12 English Men of War are cruising off of that Port, Orders are sent to that and several other Ports to be upon their Guard.

Constantinople, March 15. According to Advices from several Places Kouli Kan seems to be preparing some great Undertakings against the Ottoman Empire, and they actually say he is marching towards the Frontiers at the Head of 200000 Men, and that a Vanguard has already committed Hostilities. Upon this Advice the Porte has sent Orders to their troops that are nearest the Frontiers, to march and oppose him; and for Fear they should not be strong enough, it has been resolv'd to send those Forces into the Field, which serv'd in the last War against the Emperor and the Czarina. Tho' we have had no News with Regard to the Troubles at Cairo in Egypt since those formerly publish'd, yet the Grand Signior is very much disturb'd at this Affair, it being apprehended that the Troubles have been fomented by Persons who have maintain'd a secret Understanding with Kouli Kan, and that a general Revolution will happen in a Country whose Inhabitants are so uneasy under the Ottoman Government.

Vienna, April 13. N. S. The Emperor has nominated the Count d'Ostein, who was heretofore his Envoy Extraordinary to Russia, and his Plenipotentiary at the Congress of Nimirof, to go in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary to the British Court, for which he will set out in a Month or six Weeks, to relieve the Baron de Wafner, who, 'tis said, is to go to Paris to relieve the Baron de Schmerling. Mr. Robinson, the British Envoy Extraordinary, has had a second Conference this Week with the Emperor's Ministers, concerning the Affair of Porto Bello and the Influence which it may probably have upon the Negotiations, when a Peace shall be in Treaty betwixt England and Spain. The Mutiny of the Peasants in Styria becomes every Day a more serious Affair than was apprehended. They are taking all the necessary Measures to support what they have begun. They have chose their Leaders, and are endeavouring to render the Avenues of their Province inaccessible, by felling of Trees and cutting Trenches, and actually sent to the Archbishop of Saltzbourg to desire Assistance; but he answered them that he was very much against their Mutiny; that they must not expect any Help from him; and that the best Advice he could give them was to lay down their Arms, and to make their Submissions, if they hop'd for any Redress of their just Complaints. Tho' a Battalion of Konigsberg's Regiment is added to that of the Cuirassiers of Caraffa, to act against those Peasants, 'tis believ'd it will be a hard Matter to reduce them, without employing a greater Force; therefore Althan's Regiment of Dragoons is also on the March thither.

They write from Rome, that 50 Cardinals are already arrived at the Conclave, but that 6 more are expected, before they proceed in good earnest to the Choice of a Pope. The Letters add, that the three Principal Powers of Europe seem to have agreed in the Person, tho' his Name is a Secret.

Hanover, April 19. N. S. The King of Great Britain our Elector commiserating the melancholy Circumstances to which the Inhabitants of this Electorate have been reduc'd by the Severity of the Winter, has eas'd them from several Pressures, and has order'd the Granaries of Corn to be set open here and in several other Towns, where any Persons that have Money or Credit are admitted to be Purchasers at a moderate Price; and to those that have neither, a certain Quantity is distributed gratis in Proportion to their Necessity. The King's Domains having also suffer'd considerably by the bad Weather, his Majesty has granted to those that have the Management of them a considerable Abatement of the Sums which they pay annually, and has moreover rais'd the Pay both of his Horse and Dragoons, that they may be the better able to maintain themselves and their Cattle.

Brussels, April 21. N. S. The Edict formerly mention'd seems to have made no Impression upon the Ligeois tending to an Accommodation, they having just laid on additional Duties on the Goods of their own Country which they judge this Country cannot well be without; nay they have entirely forbid the Exportation of them, and seem resolv'd to behave in this Manner till they have engag'd the Dyet of Ratisbon to take Cognizance of their Grievances, which they have very great Hopes of doing. Mean time the Government of the Austrian Netherlands continues firm in its Resolution to support its Pretensions with as much Vigor as the Ligeois; and there is more and more Reason to fear a speedy Interruption of the Commerce betwixt the two States.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S

BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court, Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains in a most surprising Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoids or Menstru; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (as used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians, a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shoar, at Home or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates, therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptic from a Prescription of Helvetius, and use it in the Room of Dr. Eaton's; but whoever tries both, will soon be persuaded that Our's exceeds theirs in all Respects, in a most eminent Degree.
